

News from:

Cass County Electric Cooperative

For Immediate Release

Contact: Claire Vigesaa, Vice President

701.261.8810 cvigesaa@kwh.com

Three re-elected to Cass County Electric Cooperative Board

Cass County Electric Cooperative held its 73rd Annual Member meeting in Valley City Monday evening. Chairman Wendy Loucks and President & CEO Scott Handy reported on the solid financial and reliability performance of the cooperative in 2009. President & CEO Scott Handy assured the membership that even though electric prices are rising; the cooperative is well positioned with power supply, staff and equipment to supply energy to the growing membership. Handy encouraged members to participate in energy conservation and efficiency initiatives offered through the cooperative. He pointed the the members to the cooperative's websites, www.kwh.com and www.togetherwesave.com.

Directors John Froelich of Valley City, Russell Berg of Horace and Robert Huether of Lisbon were re-elected to three year board terms.

Cass County Electric Cooperative is a not-for-profit, customer owned electric distribution system serving over 34,000 members in an eight-county area in southeastern North Dakota. Headquartered in Kindred, CCEC has service centers in Fargo, Valley City, Lisbon and Arthur. Cass County Electric's wholesale power supplier is Minnkota Power Cooperative.

###